Important information regarding the Programme Regulations

Last revised 13 April 2023

As a student registered with the University of London you are governed by the current General Regulations and Programme Regulations associated with your programme of study.

These Programme Regulations are designed and developed by the University of London which is responsible for the academic direction of the programme. The Programme Regulations will provide the detailed rules and guidance for your programme of study.

In addition to Programme Regulations you will have to abide by the General Regulations. These regulations apply to all students registered for a programme of study with the University of London and provide the rules governing registration and assessment on all programmes; they also indicate what you may expect on completion of your programme of study and how you may pursue a complaint, should that be necessary. Programme Regulations should be read in conjunction with the General Regulations.

If your effective date of registration is 1 July, the study session for the first module(s) you select will

Deferring an assessment

5.3

We will not allow you to defer the coursework, final assessment or project element of assessment. If you miss a deadline for submission of coursework, final assessment or project you will be given a mark of zero for the assessment item and it will count as an attempt.
